PRIMARY EXAMINER

DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the amendment filed on August 16, 2005, in which claims 1-22 are presented for further examination.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, filed August 16, 2005, with respect to claims 1-22 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The double patenting rejection of last office action has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-22 are allowable in light of the Applicants' arguments, the terminal disclaimer and in light of the prior art made of record.

Reasons for Indicating Allowable Subject Matter

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Upon searching a variety of databases, the examiner respectfully submits that "determining for each of a plurality of sample texts, a match score related to the number of descriptive terms present in or derived from the text that match those in the target document, where each of the plurality of sample texts has an associated classification identifier that identifies the one or more different classes to which the text belongs and selecting one or more of the sample texts having the highest match scores, and recording the one or more classification identifies associated with one or more sample texts having the highest match scores" in conjunction with all other limitations of the dependent and independent claims, are not taught nor suggested by the prior art of record (PTO-

1449 and 892,). Therefore, all pending claims 1-22 is hereby allowed.

Since allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant is encouraged to submit formal drawings in response to this Office action, only if formal drawings have not yet submitted. The early submission of formal drawings will permit the Office to review the drawings for acceptability and to resolve any informalities remaining therein before the application is passed to issue. This will avoid possible delays in the issue process.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".

Conclusion

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jean M Corrielus whose telephone number is (571) 272-4032. The examiner can normally be reached on 10 hours shift. If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, John Breene can be reached on (571) 272-4107. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
